Wholesale investment Under the $1 billion DIP the Bank may issue debt securities, that are issued in series, and each series may comprise one or more tranches. These may vary in number, timing and tenor. By certifying the $1 billion DIP, each individual issuance of notes or tranches is certified.

For wholesale Short Term Deposits, the tenor of these deposits is primarily between 30 days to 1 year. Issuance can be daily, and a typical week may see individual depositors transact numerous times with the Bank (this does not include any secondary market activity).

All wholesale sector funding issued by the Bank is Certified Responsible Investment. This means that any wholesale investor in the Bank is guaranteed that their investment is a Certified Responsible Investment.

All retail mortgages and deposit products sold by all bank brands are Certified Responsible Investment

Teachers Mutual Bank Limited is the only Australian bank with retail deposits, mortgages, and wholesale funding all certified by RIAA as Responsible Investment. Combined these wholesale and retail products are c.97% of all products that the Bank sells.

Disclosure of market data

We support the Program aims to publish relevant and accessible disclosures. We report twice yearly data of our Certified Responsible Investment products on the balance sheet to engage and inform the market about our commitment to responsible investment and RIAA Certified products.

Methodology

In February 2021 we reviewed the methodology to calculate the market data of Certified products, and shared this with RIAA to align with the Program aims and objectives.

Assets – retail mortgages This is outstanding balances of new mortgages sold since certification. The total increases as more new mortgages are sold and reduces as existing ones are paid off over time, or exited. This includes existing mortgages that have been topped up.

Liabilities – wholesale products Debt securities issued under the DIP are issued in tranches so very simple to report. STD balances are issued daily by Treasury. Over time as STDs have been progressively replaced, all STD are now Certified, so we use the balance of STDs that is calculated daily

Liabilities- retail deposits. This is new money deposited into the bank since December 1 2018. It may be placed into an existing product account, if a new product is not needed. We calculate new money only; e.g. if an account had $100k before Dec 1 2018 and retained this balance and then had a balance of $150k, we only count the $50k. We count the increase over the lowest balance since Dec 1 2018. It is also the balance for all new deposit accounts opened since December 1 2018 - all new money to the bank.

- The reported data represent the Certified products on the balance sheet at that point in time. In the period, balances go up and down, for retail products in particular.
- We report the percentage of Certified Responsible Investment for total balance sheet assets and liabilities.
- Data for a Financial Year is taken from audited accounts. 6 months data to December is unaudited, and released after APRA statistics are published.
- Retail mortgages and deposits are combined into one figure.

Your responsible investment credentials can be trusted

With the growth of interest in sustainability has come a new wave of “green” products and services. With this growth has come an increasing demand for third party verification of claims and benefits. In the case of investors, they are looking for clear and consistent information that specifically outlines how investment products and services address important environmental, social and governance issues.

Being certified by RIAA means you have met the industry’s operational and disclosure requirements and this in turn means your clients can have confidence in your responsible investment credentials.

You are a leader in responsible investment practice

The operational and disclosure requirements of the Program can only be met by the organisations and individual professionals who are open to having their ESG processes, systems and performance made public – and in the case of products and superfunds, also subject to verification by an independent auditor. In the eyes of investment peers and the consuming public, this transparency leads to higher degrees of trust through increased accountability.

Becoming certified under the Program confirms the leadership position you are taking in regard to managing and disclosing environmental, social and governance issues through your investment products, services or policies.
